(b) Tariffs for Cellular Mobile Telephone Services are specified by Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI) in its Telecommunication Tariff Order (TTO), 1999. These tariffs are for standard tariff package, which must always be offered to the subscribers by the service providers. The standard tariff package offered by the service providers is identical in all parts of the country. In addition to the standard tariff package, the service providers are free to offer alternate tariff packages subject to the approval of TRAI. The subscriber is free to choose from among all tariff package including the standard tariff packages. As per the information provided by the company, they are charging tariffs as approved by TRAI.
